

More famous faces for Dracula vs. Robin Hood vs. Jekyll and Hyde

PRESS RELEASE

MORE FAMOUS FACES FOR DRACULA VS. ROBIN HOOD VS. JEKYLL & HYDE

Publisher Mohawk Media is promising surprise guest stars throughout its new series, Dracula vs. Robin Hood vs. Jekyll & Hyde.

Not content with the title's legendary headliners, the second issue sees a long forgotten character from the Robin Hood legend make a comeback. Plus it features two of history's most twisted tyrants.

British writer Chris Bunting says: "Each guest star will play a vital role in this series. The third issue will bare witness to that with the arrival of a famous horror monster."

Released via the publisher's paperless range of Eco Comics, editor Stuart Buckley explains: "Expect a top quality print comic book in everything but physical format. In fact, not many print comic books look this good.

"The aim of this comic is to give fans lots of fighting and fun. It may not get an Eisner, but this series is already getting rave reviews."

Dracula vs. Robin Hood vs. Jekyll & Hyde #1 and #2 are twenty-page issues, and available to order now in various digital formats via the Eco Comics store: www.mohawkmedia.co.uk/ecocomics at a cover price of $1.95 (approximately £1.20).

Dracula vs. Robin Hood vs. Jekyll & Hyde will initially be a three-issue monthly series available exclusively via the publisher's groundbreaking line of ECO COMICS, designed to have minimal negative impact on the environment.

Further instalments of the series, and other "versus" titles, are set to be announced.
